Out of the Past

May 9, 1924

The firm of Fauri & Conta, farmers having a dairy herd on the Amasa trunk line highway, has decided to enter the retail milk trade in Crystal Falls. They have a tested herd and conform to all the requirements of the Crystal Falls City milk and food ordinance. Orders may be placed at Rossi's Confectionery (418 Superior) for home delivery by their milk wagon.

Crystal Falls will have a new full-fledged sportsmen's club to be called Sportsmen Conservation Club. A complete set of by-laws have been adopted and election of officers were established with 300 members expected to join. The object of the club is building up and the protection and promulgation of all fish and game, protection of song and insect eating birds, protection of our present forests and promotion of reforestation and in general to establish a closer unity and fellowship among all true sportsmen and lovers of nature. Any person of good moral character pledging his active support to the purposes of the club shall on a payment of $1.00 annual dues with election by the members be admitted to the club.
