Out of the Past

February 27, 1897

About 300 people attended the masquerade ball given by the Crystal Falls Firemen at the Opera House (28 Superior). Many Native American costumes were featured with Sitting Bull, Rain in the Face, Thunder Cloud, Geronimo, War Eagle, Apache Kid, Man Afraid of his Shadow, Him Gun Always Loaded and several other noble red men represented. There were plenty of maskers to make the affair pleasantly lively from start to finish with dancing commencing at 9:00 and after two hours the masks were removed. "Old Timers" were reminded of like affairs that Crystal Falls used to have in the years gone by.

Ad: A Woman's Body – What its neglect leads to. A woman's body is the repository of the most delicate mechanism in the whole realm of creation and yet most women will let it get out of order and keep out of order just as if it were of no consequence. The presence of back ache, heads throb, wandering pains, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness and the blues result in untold misery. Lydia E. Pinkman's Vegetable Compound will beyond the question of doubt relieve all this trouble before it becomes serious.
