The supremacy of the Italians over the Swedes is not only limited to the softball field. The sons of sunny Italy showed the lads from the land of the midnight sun a thing or two about bowling. Applying their inherited skill of "bocce ball" to the smooth maple surfaces of the Martinson bowling alleys the Italians walked off with a 249 pin advantage over the Swedes in the first annual clash by winning all three games. Italian team members included: Felix Andrizzi, Tony Pivatto, Chet Sartori, Larry Simeoni and Babe Tirapelli. Swede team members included: Roy Friestrom, Roy Hagglund, Emil Johnson, Marv Westerdahl and Gordon Willman.
